Press Release

Date: February 2015

City of Johnstown Assessor
Announces Mailing of New Assessment Values

As part of the Reassessment Project, New Preliminary Full Value Assessments will be mailed to all Property Owners in the City of Johnstown.

City Assessor, Frank Parker, announces beginning February 27, 2015, Disclosure Notices will be mailed to all property owners within the City. Instructions will be included with each notice indicating the procedure for requesting an informal review, how to obtain forms and where to get information. Mr. Parker reminds property owners to focus on the full market value estimate. If you do not agree with this estimate AND can offer proof for a change, you can follow the process of filing a complaint. Informal reviews will be held from March 11th through March 28th. Appointments will be required.

Information regarding property assessments, inventory data and sale information will be available beginning March 2nd through March 28th, at the Johnstown Public Library, 38 South Market Street, during regular business hours, or by visiting http://72.39.247.67/imo/index.aspx

The Assessor along with GAR Associates, Inc. (contractor for the project) will be offering informational workshops in March. The workshops will focus on how the assessments were determined; a review of the notice property owners will receive and how the informal review process works. Information regarding the dates and times of the workshops will be included with the notices.

FRIDAY